#103. Thomas Arvid: "History Becomes Art" Limited Edition Giclée

Once again, Thomas Arvid stuns us with his creativity and talent. With "History Becomes Art," Arvid celebrates the 1976 French blind wine tasting, The Judgement of Paris. Much to the shock of the rest of the world, particularly the French, the American wines dominated the competition and took home first place for both Chardonnay and Cabernet. Using a backdrop of the news print commemorating this historic event that put Napa wines on the world stage, Arvid uses his signature rich oils and hyper realism to showcase the winning Cabernet. The limited edition is printed on paper mounted on masonite to best represent the original oil on paper mounted on board.

Item Details: Giclée on Masonite. No. 31/125. Dimensions: 43" x 23 1/4".
Donated by: Thomas Arvid Fine Art, Inc.
Value: $3,200
